

Usage precautions for hair dyes (Draft)

I. Adhere to the following precautions before use this hair dyes:

- (i) Please carefully read instruction manual before use and correctly use the product according to directions.
- (ii) Hair dyes may cause allergic reaction.
- (iii) Do not apply on area other than hair such as eyebrows and eyelashes.
- (iv) Avoid applying the hair dyes when after grooming or shaving of face.
- (v) Simultaneously mixing and using hair dyes of different brands can cause damage.
- (vi) Do not perm hair a week prior to as well as after dying hair.

II. Hair dye operating precautions:

- (i) Wear gloves when applying hair dye.
- (ii) Recommended to consult Dermatologist or conduct dermal sensitization test before use.
- (iii) Avoid contact with face or neck area. Should face or neck accidentally come into contact with hair dye, rinse immediately.
- (iv) Avoid contact with the eyes. Prevent cleaning solution during hair washing from contacting the eyes as well. Should eyes accidentally come into contact, immediately rinse with large amounts of clean water and quickly seek medical attention.
- (v) Should the skin exhibit any signs of abnormality after hair dying, seek medical attention immediately.

III. Those with the following conditions should avoid using this product:

- (i) Previous allergic reactions or discomfort due to use of hair dye products (not limited to this product).
- (ii) Abnormalities after dermal sensitization test.
- (iii) Swelling, injuries or skin diseases in the head, neck and facial area.
- (iv) Allergies, inflammation or other physical conditions in the scalp or skin (e.g. suffering from illnesses, recovering from illnesses, undergoing menstruation and pregnancy etc.).
- (v) Patients with kidney or blood diseases.
- (vi) Other individuals not suitable for hair-dying.

IV. Storage precautions:

- (i) Product should be stored in sites out of the reach of children.
- (ii) Storage sites should avoid high temperatures as well as direct sunlight.