

Notification of the Committee on Labels

No....

RE: Gas warm water devices and gas hot water heaters are a commodity subject to a controlled label

By appearing of installed the gas warm water devices and the gas hot water heaters are not appropriate as they make the inadequate ventilation and accumulate of carbon monoxide which results in consumers being harmed or killed. Accordingly, the gas warm water devices and the gas hot water heaters are subject to a controlled label.

By virtue of Section 30 and Section 31 of the Consumer Protection Act B.E. 2522 (1979) as amended by the Consumer Protection Act (No. 2) B.E. 2541 (1998) which contains provision for consumer protection for the safety of using the product by specify the label which will be beneficial for the consumer to acknowledge the fact about the product, therefore, the Committee on Labels here by issues the Regulation as follows.

Clause 1. This Certification defines:

“Gas warm water devices” as a devices that heat water by using gas as fuel for consumer bathing or for other similar functioning, and;

“Gas hot water heaters” as a devices that heat water by using gas as fuel which boils processing water up to 100°C or slight higher than boiling points of water for consumer bathing or for other similar purposes.

Clause 2. Gas warm water devices and gas hot water heaters are subject to a controlled label.

Clause 3. The Label of a commodity subject to a controlled label under Clause 2 shall be in compliance with Clause 1 to 3 of the Notification of the Committee on Labels in the titled of the commodity label is subject to a controlled label B.E. 2541 (1998) dated 23rd September B.E. 2541 (1998). The label shall also specify the following text:

(a) the directions for use shall specify that “Should be installed outside the building and if be installed inside the building which also installed the ventilator”

(b) the warning shall say “fatal danger if installed in an unventilated room”

The “warning message”...

The “warning message” shall be in red and can read clearly not less than 5 mm., showed in front of the machine.

This Notification shall come into force after 120 days since the date of published in the Government Gazette.

Given on the

-Signature-

(.....)

Chairperson of the Committee on Labels